There is nothing to do around here.

I am so bored.

My friends are no fun.

Nothing exciting ever happens in my life.

There is no place to go.

My life is a drag.

Kids who try Meth
try to tell you first.

Never underestimate the power of boredom. It is why the drug meth has become one of the most dangerous drug problems in America. To learn more about the effects of this addictive drug, you can visit: www.drugfree.org/meth. And start listening to what your kids are really trying to tell you.
